- » Participation is free, there is no age limit
- » Both amateur and professional photographers are welcome to participate
- » Photos taken within two last years are eligible for entry
- » Taking photos at border crossing points requires special permission from relevant border agencies. Participants should ensure they comply with all legal requirements when taking photos at or close to border areas. EUBAM does not accept liability for any detention, injury or death resulting from participation in this competition
- » The photos should be submitted via e-mail to eubamphoto@gmail.com by 8 May. The title of the photo, date taken, first and last name of the photographer, contact telephone and postal address must be indicated in the body of the message
- » Photos submitted should meet the following requirements:
Files format: JPG, JPEG • Image resolution: 200-300 dpi • Image size: the image should be printable in A4 or A3 formats.
- » A jury composed of three persons will select the 3 winners. No appeal on the organization or on the results of the competition will be accepted. The jury's decision will be final
- » Small prizes and certificates will be awarded to the three best photographers
- » EUBAM has the right to use the photos, submitted in the photo competition, for non-commercial and promotional purposes (such as publication in booklets, catalogues, calendars, websites, etc.) without notifying and/or compensating the photographer.
- » Exhibition: a selection of the 20 best photos submitted for the competition will be showcased at an exhibition
- » EUBAM cannot be held responsible for force majeure, should the competition be modified or cancelled

Themes:

- » People
- » Danube landscapes
- » Ports of Giurgiulesti, Reni and Izmil
- » Danube flora and fauna

Submission of an entry assumes the acceptance of all terms and conditions of the competition.
